

John B. Dunn
Public Information Officer

John B. Dunn is the Public Information Officer for the Tennessee Comptroller's Office. John is responsible for all external communications efforts which include media relations, video production, website coordination, social media and photography. John is also a member of the Comptroller's legislative team.

John was hired by the Comptroller's Office in 2014. Prior to his employment with the state, John was an Emmy and AP award winning television reporter for WZTV in Nashville, TN for 12 years. He also worked for WJHL in Johnson City, TN for two years. John often covered government and politics during his years as a reporter.

John is a graduate of Butler University in Indianapolis, IN where he studied broadcast journalism and speech communications. In 2018, he also received a certificate of completion for the Senior Executives in State and Local Government Program from Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government. Additionally, John is a 2017 graduate of LEAD Tennessee.

John and his wife Jennifer have three daughters. In his spare time he enjoys running, reading and cheering for Butler basketball.

